Senior Salute

The Senior Salute Program was established to recognize seniors with exemplary academics, leadership and participation in school and community activities. The goal of this program is to recognize those Fairfield Union High School Seniors who have taken part in all areas of high school life. The award is based on a well-rounded student, not only academic, but one that has been involved in many school and community activities.

Eligibility: Must be a Fairfield Union High School Senior with an overall 2.750 G.P.A. to qualify.

Application: Students applying for the Senior Salute Award must complete the Senior Salute Application by providing information that summarizes their high school academics, the arts, extra-curricular activities, school activities, community activities and accomplishments. Senior Salute packets will be available in the high school office, Mrs. Cupp's room and on the district web page.

Completed applications must be returned to Mrs. Cupp by 2:30pm on April 3, 2023.

- When answering the questions consider and include school, church, community, and other activities.
- Include information for your high school years only.
- Complete in blue/black ink or type the application.

Selection: Senior Salute applications will be evaluated by Fairfield Union District Office staff, excluding Mr. Belville. Senior Salute Honorees are eligible for the Kevin Miller Memorial Scholarship, which will be awarded by the Miller family.

Deadline: Deadline for submitting the completed application to Mrs. Cupp is 2:30 pm on April 3, 2023.

Notification: Senior Salute Honorees will be announced on April 28, 2023.

Student Obligation: Honorees will be asked to attend the State of Schools Address where they will be presented with a medallion to be worn at graduation. Students will be required to submit a biography to be read at the State of Schools on May 22, 2023.

Recognition: Parents and Seniors will be recognized at the State of Schools Address on May 22, 2023. The State of Schools will be held in the Robert Trocchia Performing Arts Center at 5:30 pm. The Kevin Miller Memorial Scholarship will also be awarded during this ceremony.
