Fairfield Union High School Senior Recognition and Graduation Details

- Senior Yard Signs
 - The senior yard signs are currently displayed around the pond in front of the High School.
 - Seniors will be permitted to take the signs home with them on Saturday, May 23 at the conclusion of the Senior Parade
 - Proper social distancing practices should be followed at all times.

- Senior Parade, Awards and Graduation Attire Distribution - May 23, 11:30 AM
 - The distribution point will be located between the senior parking lot and student parking lot.
 - Graduation caps, gowns, hoods and cords as well as senior awards will be distributed to students starting promptly at 11:30 AM.
 - Each senior will be provided a lunch from Canes to eat while waiting for the parade to begin.
 - After receiving their items the seniors will proceed to the parade line up which will start in front of the MS and continue on the access road between the MS and HS.
 - The parade MUST begin promptly at 1:00 PM.
 - We will stop distribution of senior items at 12:45 PM. We ask that students arrive on campus no later than noon on parade day.
 - Students may have two family members in their vehicle, however we recommend family members watch the parade from the parade route.
 - The parade will conclude at the High School at approximately 2:45 PM. Students will be permitted to take their yard signs with them after the parade.
 - We will have students park in the overflow parking lot in front of the high school while retrieving their yard signs.
 - Due to the cancellation of our Senior Awards Night the district will provide each graduate a digital copy of this event as a memento.
