

Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (Restraint and Seclusion)

The Fairfield Union School District has a policy of Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (Restraint and Seclusion) regarding the use of positive behavior intervention and supports, and the limited use of restraint and seclusion. The District has implemented PBIS on a system-wide basis with the components set forth in the State Board of Education's (SBOE) policy on positive behavior interventions and supports. Inquiries or complaints should be directed to Jan Broughton, Superintendent at 740-536-7384.
