

Fairfield Union High School
School Supply Information

Due to the nature of high school scheduling, each student's need for supplies will differ. We recommend that students be prepared with basic supplies for the first day of school. Teachers will communicate throughout the school year what supplies each student will be required to purchase.

